

Hi

Good to hear from you.

Thanks for your request for a Lourdes form. Please find it attached.

Please send in your photos, deposit and passport details with the form. You will need to send a deposit of £100 with the form. The cheque needs to be made out to "Youth Service Events".

You will see a form at the end, which needs to be completed too. If you have any questions please ask. The final payment will be £50 to make a total payment for coach of £550. We do not yet know the full flight price – they don't come out until the New Year.

We will be meeting the first Thursday of every month starting from February. So that means the first meeting will be 2nd February at 7:30 pm in the Education Centre at Lancaster (Balmoral Road). This will be a great way for everyone to start to meet and think about what it means to go on pilgrimage.

We will keep you up to date via email, so if anything changes with your address, please let us know.

We will be in touch soon and thanks again for your interest.

God bless

Team

Photography Policy

I understand and consent to the fact that during Diocesan Youth Events, photos and videos of the young people may be taken which may be used for posters, the website and the diocesan newspaper. These images will only be used for these purposes and in an educational context for reminding young people of these activities and experiences and promoting future events. I understand that any young person or leader who does not want their photo to be taken or to be used in any of the ways described above is free to make this clear in writing to the Youth Service staff who will comply with their wishes.

I have read and consent to the Photography policy as detailed above. I recognise that this form covers all events that I/my child may attend now and in the future. I understand that it is my responsibility to inform the Youth Service in writing if I do not want (my child) to be photographed and if my opinion should change in the future.
